

April 2, 1973

PRESIDENT: And the chair would...

SENATOR SYAS: You know this bill was set for this morning. We were ready this morning. Let's have it tomorrow morning in the morning.

PRESIDENT: Well, all right.

SENATOR SYAS: In ten minutes, we cannot dispose of this bill one way or the other.

PRESIDENT: Thank you sir. Are there any objections to passing over 193 and I presume, also, then you would go along with 342, the two bills to be considered in tandem, then, tomorrow morning? Any objections to bypassing the bills?

SENATOR SYAS: Let's get to them tomorrow morning.

PRESIDENT: The chair would show the chair as voting aye. All right. Now, any objections to hearing these two bills tomorrow morning. Senator Cavanaugh.

SENATOR CAVANAUGH: Do you want to do it now? Mr. President, I think I would object. I think we have an agreement on this bill between Senator Clark and myself and I would expect that 193 could progress without much difficulty. So, I think we ought to take it up.

PRESIDENT: Well, I appreciate that Senator Cavanaugh. Senator Clark, do you have a comment? Stand by, now. Senator Syas.

SENATOR SYAS: Senator Mahoney...Cavanaugh wants to take the responsibility under a kill motion to handle this thing in ten minutes, it's his responsibility. I will not object. One thing, an agreement with two Senators on two bills is another.

PRESIDENT: I think the chair...thank you, Senator Cavanaugh. All right. We are going to bypass 193 and 342. For whatever it is worth, we also have a motion up there to adjourn. Senator Johnson, is there any possibility...Senator Lewis is here now. Do you want to...I suppose I could mention, the chair doesn't mind working. As far as I'm concerned, I am here to help you but it depends on whether you have had enough debate for one day. If you want to chop it off, what do you want to do? All right. We have a motion to adjourn.

CLERK: Mr. President, I have some other announcements to read.

PRESIDENT: Read the announcements.

CLERK: Read.

PRESIDENT: Any other business on the desk? Any objections? Hearing none, so ordered.

CLERK: Mr. President, a Reference Committee report--read. Mr. President, a notice of Committee Hearing--read. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to be excused Tuesday afternoon, April 3rd, and Wednesday morning, April 4th. Signed, Senator Moylan.

PRESIDENT: Are there objections? Hearing none, so ordered.

CLERK: Mr. President. I move we adjourn until 9 o'clock. Signed, Senator Fellman.

PRESIDENT: Any other business to come before the body?
